

IN THE COURT OF [COURT NAME]

NON-BAILABLE OFFENCE -- BAIL IS AT COURT DISCRETION, NOT A RIGHT

APPLICATION FOR BAIL UNDER BNSS

APPLICANT DETAILS

Accused Name	Ravi Kumar
FIR Number	FIR/2024/001
Police Station	-
Date of Arrest	-
Days in Custody	917

GROUND(S) FOR BAIL

1. Section 187 BNSS: Charge sheet not filed within the 90-day statutory limit -- default bail eligibility triggered regardless of offence gravity

LEGAL CITATIONS

BNSS Section	Applicability
BNSS Section 187	Section 187 BNSS: Charge sheet not filed within the 90-day statutory limit — default bail eligibility triggered regardless of offence gravity

AI-ASSISTED PLAIN-LANGUAGE SUMMARY

I am writing to help you understand the legal situation of Ravi Kumar regarding FIR/2024/001. Ravi is currently facing charges under Section 303 (Theft) and Section 64 (Rape). It is important to be honest and realistic with you: because Section 64 is a very serious, "non-bailable" offence, bail is not a guaranteed right in this case. Whether or not Ravi is released is entirely up to the

Please take this document to a free legal aid clinic (Zila Vidhi Seva Pradhikaran) for a qualified advocate to review and file.

DISCLAIMER

This document identifies potentially applicable legal provisions for review by a licensed advocate. It does not constitute legal advice. Project Mukti is an AI tool -- all applications must be reviewed by a qualified legal professional before filing.

Reviewed and approved by: _____ (Advocate)

Date: _____ Bar Council Reg. No.: _____